

Wolfgang BOGENSBERGER

Nationality:

- Austrian

Academic qualifications:

- Postgraduate Diploma in European law, European Academy of Vienna (1995)
- Doctorate in Philosophy (Political Science, Communication and Philosophy), University of Vienna (1989)
- Doctorate in Law, University of Vienna (1985)

Professional experience inside EU Institutions:

- Acting Head of Representation of the European Commission in Austria (since 2024)
- Deputy Head of Representation of the European Commission in Austria and Team leader for Political Reporting (2016 – 2024)
- Legal Advisor, Team Justice, Freedom, Security, Civil Law, Criminal Law, at the Legal Service of the European Commission, Brussels (2010 - 2016)
- Member of the Legal Service of the European Commission, Brussels, Teams Social Affairs and Justice, Liberty, Security (1999 - 2007)
- Administrator in the European Parliament’s LIBE Committee on Civil Liberties in Brussels and Strasbourg (1996 - 1999)

Professional experience outside EU Institutions:

- Director General for Criminal Law Legislation, Austrian Ministry of Justice, Vienna (2007 - 2010)
- Prosecutor and Deputy Head of Unit, Austrian Ministry of Justice, Vienna (1994 - 1996)
- Trial Judge, Juvenile Justice Court, Vienna (1992 - 1994)
- Judge, Desk Officer in the Directorate for Criminal Law Legislation, Austrian Ministry of Justice, Vienna (1989 - 1992)
- Candidate Judge at Several Courts in Vienna and Lower Austria (1985 - 1989)

Other professional activities:

- University Lecturer for European and International Criminal Law at the Law Faculty of the Sigmund Freud University, Vienna (since 2019)
- University Lecturer for “Human Rights” at the University of Vienna (since 2021)

Language Skills:

- German
- English
- French